JOSEPH M. FR[illegible]AN
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
LYCEUM THEATRE BUILDING
MEMPHIS, TENN.

MEMPHIS, TENN.
APR 2[illegible]
6-PM
1917

2
DESOTO ST[illegible]
D

Miss Frances Levine,
70 Somers St.,
Brooklyn,
N. Y.

JOSEPH M. FREEDMAN
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
LYCEUM THEATRE BUILDING
MEMPHIS, TENN.

April 25th, 1917.

My darling Frances:-

Didn't get any mail from you to-day, so far, but perhaps there will be something for me this afternoon.

Dear, I got my check for $300.00 today & paid out already $75.00, leaving still a few minor claims or debt.

We had an awful scrap to-day with the creditors. They had my uncle on the stand for 2 solid hours & they just simply couldn't shake him. Besides being frightened about his testifying, I was, at first ashamed to walk into the court room as I thought that brilliant uncle of mine would tell an entirely different story there than what he told me, but he must have studied hard what I drilled into him & therefore came out O.K.

Sooth, I was thinking of leaving here for N.Y. on Tuesday, May 1st, & if I can possibly do it, I'll do so. It all depends on this case as the ~~referee~~ referee told me he would pay me the fee all at once on condition I help the trustee & him which I readily agreed to. I suppose there will be one or two more examinations & then I'll be through. I really do hope

JOSEPH M. FREEDMAN
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
LYCEUM THEATRE BUILDING
MEMPHIS, TENN.

it will be soon, as I'm tired of it. I worked pretty hard on that case & don't feel that $300.00 is enough. The referee told me he wouldn't allow any unnecessary delay or litigation & I'm pretty confident if he says that, it won't be long before I'm through with it.

Well, Toot, and how are you? How are you feeling, sweetheart mine? Still love me? Honey, I sure am anxious to be with you .. I love you so.

Shall close now, honey mine, with all my love, Ever

Lovingly

Joe